Views are sought as town plan published

A MULTI-MILLION pound scheme to transform Stourbridge will be sent to the Secretary of State after residents have given their views on the blueprint plans.

Publication of the Stourbridge Area Action Plan was agreed at a full meeting of Dudley Council this week.

A period of public consultation will be carried out until November 12 for residents to have their say on the scheme.

And it is hoped the plan will be formally adopted at the end of 2013 to guide inward investment to the town centre well into the next decade.

Traders, developers and councillors helped to draw up the plan which includes proposals for new shops, offices and homes along with improvements to transport routes for all and better public spaces.

Any suggestions made will then be considered and minor changes made to the document by council officers before it is sent to the Secretary of State early next year. Making improvements to the look of the town's ring road is also being seen as important to the future prosperity of the town to draw in new businesses.

New pathways for visitors to the River Stour and pedestrian crossing points on parts of the ring road would also be created.

Festival of canal boats

AN annual meeting of canal boats will meet beside the Bonded Warehouse in Canal Street later this month as part of Stourbridge Canal Trust open weekend.

Now in its twenty-ninth year, the large event will feature around a hundred boats as well as a number of historic cars and traction engines.

The event on October 20 and 21 opens at 10am and close at 6pm.

Admission is free and there will be amusements and boat trips.

TRAFFIC WARDENS INCREASE BY THIRD

Report by Adam Burling

THE number of traffic wardens at Dudley Council will be increased by more than a third in a bid to tackle illegal parking in problem areas, it was revealed this week.

The council says a shortage of enforcement officers means out-of-town regions, including the roads around Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital, have been overlooked.

But now five staff will be recruited in the coming weeks, in addition to the 14 that are already employed by the authority.

Festive jobs snapped up at Merry Hill

JOBSEEKERS descended on Dudley's Merry Hill shopping centre last week in the hope of getting work over the festive season.

Hundreds of people poured through the doors of the Black Country Skills Shop for the jobs fair and snapped up about 200 jobs.

On offer was a variety of posts, from temporary staff to supervisors at stores including Bhs, Toys R Us and Ryman's.

Russell Curtis, KFC restaurant manager in Kingswinford, said: "We had a good number of positions going for restaurants in this region."

The two KFC outlets in the centre are looking for at least 18 new staff over the Christmas period.

Black Country Skills Shop manager Tina Dazell said she was pleased with the turnout.

She said: "Many people are keen to get a job and this fair hopefully helped them."

"We have a good range of jobs to suit anyone."

"I also hope there will be more jobs coming up in the next few weeks."

Jobseekers at the fair were given a list of jobs available and introduced to some employers.

They were shown how to apply for positions and given tips on how to improve their CVs.

Transport chief Councillor Judy Foster said the council should have 23 officers but previous cuts have left the numbers depleted.

It comes as residents living near Russells Hall Hospital complain that new restrictions designed to stop the roads getting clogged up are not being enforced.

The Express & Star has revealed that no tickets were issued in the surrounding streets in three months since the crack-down started.

Priority

Some 125 drivers have been fined for illegally parking in Pensnett High Street outside the hospital since July 1 - where parking was already banned.

Council chiefs say there were no tickets issued in neighbouring roads in the same period.

In the year up to October 1, there were 21 notices handed out in Busheyfields Road, and just two apiece in Elgar Crescent and Tennyson Street. None in Byron Street and Vicarage Road.

Councillor Foster said: "Enforcement resources have been very thinly spread and the priority points were busy areas in town centres and other areas such as Russells Hall have suffered."

Poppy appeal is in need of volunteers

VOLUNTEERS in Stourbridge are being asked to sign up to collect money for this year's poppy appeal.

The Hagley and Blakedown British Legion is encouraging anyone with spare time to take over from retiring collectors.

Final farewell as vicar retires

The Rev Ron Curtis of St Thomas's Church, in Market Street, who is retiring on Sunday

A VICAR is retiring after eight years at a Stourbridge church and will bid a fond farewell to the community when he and his wife move back to Oxfordshire.

Reverend Ron Curtis has served as priest-in-charge at St Thomas's Church, in Stourbridge, since January 2005.

He will lead his final services, a traditional Harvest Festival and a choral evensong, at the church on Sunday.

Rev Curtis, who celebrated his 65th birthday last week, said both he and his wife, Claire, wanted to spend more time with their family. The couple have twin sons Iain and Stuart, 33, and three grandchildren Oliver, three, Alexander, aged nine months, and five-week-old Daisy.

Mr Curtis said: "Claire and I are both looking forward to being able to see more of our family. It just seemed the right time to retire. It will be very sad to say goodbye but we will treasure the happy times we have had here."

He trained to become a fully-serving priest at the age of 57 after spending 32 years working for Her Majesty's Customs and Excise, now HM Revenue and Customs.

The Harvest Festival celebration will be held at 10am and a choral evensong at 6.30pm.

Treasurer at church jailed for five years

AN accountant who volunteered as treasurer of a church and charity in Stourbridge has been jailed for stealing £525,000.

Stephen Methuen was jailed for five years for the acts of fraud, which he committed while volunteering as treasurer for both Ambleside Christian Centre, of which he was a member, and the Christian International Relief Mission.

But over a six-year period, he stole an estimated £400,000 from the evangelical church and more than £100,000 from the charity.

Some of the money was made up of £195,000 in falsified gift aid payments made to the Christian centre by the Government, Wolverhampton Crown Court heard yesterday.

The stolen funds were used by Methuen, aged 57, to pay off credit card debts and to help refurbish the Stourbridge home he shared with his now estranged wife Lynda.

Some went to his failed business, Accountancy Services Midlands Ltd, which went into liquidation in 2009.

Prosecutor Mrs Rona Campbell said: "He used particularly calculating and callous manoeuvres to keep the cash coming to him."

Accolade for Lenny stalls

RED tape has delayed a decision to award Dudley comedian Lenny Henry the Freedom of the Borough.

Dudley councillors were expected to officially confirm the comic would become an Honorary Freeman of the Borough at an extraordinary meeting that was held on Monday.

But Conservative leader Councillor Les Jones proposed a motion for the decision to be delayed until the November meeting for guidelines to be clarified.

Treasurer used stolen £525k on home, debt and business

THE "DESPICABLE" frauds carried out by professional accountant Stephen Methuen helped to refurbish his home, pay off spiralling credit card debts and to help save his failing business.

But the 57-year-old — who swindled £525,000 out of both Amblecote Christian Centre and the Christian International Relief Mission while volunteering his time as treasurer — was last week starting a five-year jail term for his crimes.

Over a six-year period, he took in the region of £400,000 from the evangelical church and more than £100,000 from the charity, based in Stourbridge.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard last week that the professional accountant "used his guile" to exploit the most deserving in order to "line his own pockets".

Methuen, of Smalman Close, Wordsley, admitted a total of 16 counts of fraud.

Six charges revealed that he falsified documents at Amblecote Christian Centre, in Brettell Lane, to conceal payments being made to his personal and business accounts between 2003 and 2009.

Conceal

A further six counts related to the falsification by him of documents for the Christian International Relief Mission, also between 2003 and 2009, to conceal payments to him.

He also admitted a further four charges relating to when, as treasurer of the Christian Centre, he cheated HM Revenue and Customs out of £195,000 by filing gift aid repayment claims which overstated the total charitable donations between 2005 and 2009, the court was told.

Accountant Stephen Methuen - jailed for five years

The Amblecote Christian Centre in Brettell Lane, where Methuen volunteered

The stolen funds went on his home, debts and also on trying to save his failing business, Accountancy Services Midlands Ltd, which went into liquidation in 2009.

Mr John Attwood, for Methuen, said his client was "deeply ashamed" of what he had done.

Jailing Methuen, Judge John Maxwell described the frauds as "despicable".

He told the defendant: "What you have done has severe consequences for the charities and also for the public. It does not end there because you tried to cover your tracks in a sophisticated way. You falsified accounts when people tried to check up on you and you put them off the scent."

Pastor Adrian Lowe said it was never the church's desire for Methuen to receive the longest sentence possible.

He added: "Now that a prison sentence has been passed, we hope the time he spends without his freedom will provide a period of personal reflection and lead to remorse. "Steve was a personal friend to many of our congregation. Our hearts go out to those who may have been hurt during this very sad affair dating back to 2003 when the offences began.

We think especially at this time too of Steve's wife and the extended family, who have faced the sudden glare of the public spotlight through no fault of their own.

No-one takes delight in the outcome; rather we can only see the end of the case as drawing a line under the events of the past three and a half years."

Hair-raising inspiration for making charity cash

Victoria Roberts, Cancer Research UK's Stourbridge area volunteer manager with Cancer Research UK fundraising colleagues Lizzie Melvin, left, and Sian Billingsley, right

A STOURBRIDGE fundraiser is calling on people to 'Stand Up To Cancer' as part of a new national campaign involving Cancer Research UK and Channel 4.

Victoria Roberts has joined a host of stars from television, music and film who are supporting 'Stand Up To Cancer', including Gwyneth Paltrow, Alan Carr, Davina McCall and Embarrassing Bodies' Dr. Christian Jessen.

In October, Channel 4's on-air season will build over a whole week culminating in a live fundraising entertainment extravaganza on Friday, October 19.

Until then, volunteers are being asked to get involved in Stand Up To Cancer by purchasing a range of fun products or organising their own fundraising activities to raise money for life-saving research projects.

Imagination

Victoria, area volunteer manager for Cancer Research UK in Stourbridge, roped in colleagues alongside award-winning hair stylist Sarah Russell to demonstrate that a little imagination can go a long way.

And she is urging anyone who wants to make a stand to join in with help from the charity's free fundraising pack.

Victoria said: "Making your hair stand on end is just one of the fun ways to join the fight and Stand Up To Cancer."

"People can make a donation or get sponsored to go to work with barnets like Jedward or Marge Simpson."

"And for those who are follicly challenged, there is always the option of sporting a spiky wig!"

All prepared for Chief Scout visit

Star guest and Chief Scout Bear Grylls drops in to visit the Scouts at the camp in Kinver during his tour

HUNDREDS of excited Scouts welcomed TV adventurer Bear Grylls to the region as he embarked on a whistle stop helicopter tour at the weekend.

The ex-SAS soldier was on a recruitment mission in his role as UK Chief Scout and stopped at seven locations across the region, including Kinver, MoD Stafford and Bridgnorth, on Saturday. The 38-year-old raced from activity to activity. He was at Kinver at 1.10pm before flying into Bridgnorth at 2.20pm, to be star guest at Shropshire Scouts' fun day.

In Kinver he spent 50 minutes visiting 550 Scouts from across the Black Country at West Mercia 2012 Scout Survivor, being held at Kinver Scout Camp. He invested three Beavers from the group into the Scout Movement and signed autographs.

Final flood work begins

THE FINAL stage of a £1million flood defence scheme on one of Dudley's busiest roads will start this month.

Work to lay new sewer pipes in Stallings Lane, Kingswinford began in July. An underground flood storage tank is being put in Broadmeadow.

The final stage of work is due to start on October 20 and a section of Stallings Lane between Hinsford Close and the entrance to Francis Catering will be shut from that date. It is expected to reopen by the end of the month and the whole scheme should be completed by mid-November.

It aims to prevent serious flooding in Stallings Lane and Hinsford Close where there were problems in 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2009.

Adam Walker, programme engineer at Severn Trent Water, said: "Some of our sewer pipes have been serving the community for many years now and need replacing."

In addition, changes in weather patterns mean that our older network of pipes are not large enough to cope with the overwhelming amount of rainfall we now experience, which, at times, causes sewer flooding.

"The work on Stallings Lane is part of a major upgrade to the sewerage system within the Kingswinford area, near Dudley. It's part of a £1 million investment and we're in the final stages of the work now."

"We've worked closely with Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council, the emergency services and bus companies so they're aware of the plans. We've also communicated with businesses and residents to try to minimise disruption whilst the work is carried out."

Innovator in glass industry dies at 79

Michael Davies, an innovator in the glass industry

A "PASSIONATE" and "hardworking" man who had a major part in the Black Country's glassmaking industry has died aged 79.

Michael Davies, founder of the Bridge Crystal Glass Company and Kinvor Crystal, died after an 18-month battle with prostate cancer. Mr Davies, of Stourton, was also a member of Kinvor Parish Council for two decades.

Son, Neil, 59, said: "He was a great innovator, a man passionate for the glassmaking industry and hardworking. I'm proud to call him my father."

Retired

Mr Davies, who died on September 16, left Audnam School, Stourbridge, at 14, to work at a garage before joining the forces.

He started Bridge Crystal Glass Company, Bridge Street, Cradley Heath, which merged with tableware firm Old Hall, which once employed 80. It was sold to US firm Prestige and Mr Davies started Kinvor Crystal, in Fairfield Drive, in 1981.

He sold that firm and ran another crystal-making firm in Ambecote for four years - up to his 74th birthday, when he retired. He was on Kinvor Parish Council for more than 20 years.

Mr Davies is also survived by his wife Patricia. His funeral was held last week.

How TA Henn looked in the 1920s before the adjoining shops were bought

How shoppers see the front of TA Henn as they walk past it today

£1m sale and another new look as jewellers celebrate 165th birthday

IT is Wolverhampton's oldest jewellers, with generations of the same family serving customers since 1847.

And now it is to have a £100,000 transformation in celebration of its 165th anniversary. TA Henn bosses want to modernise the look of the Princess Street site.

The project began with a £1 million sale that started on Saturday to help raise funds for the refurbishment.

Managing director John Henn said the sale – only the second one that has been held in the company's history – will run until this Sunday, at which point the first phase of the revamp project will begin.

"We are going to start by creating a new-look window display with a completely new style," said Mr Henn, aged 51, who lives near Cosford. "The second part will be done early next year. While the store is fairly modern already, we want to move with the times and give customers a more modern experience when they come into the store."

The first phase will be complete in time for the start of November, he added.

There will be 40 per cent off selected jewellery and 20 per cent off some Swiss brands of watches.

"We don't do sales very often so it has to be something worthwhile and we thought £1m would be a good figure," added Mr Henn, who is the sixth generation of his family to run the store.

"The money brought in from the sale will go towards the refurb." The store held its first sale in 2007, again to fund a revamp.

One item not in the sale will be a 135-year-old engraved silver tankard that was recently returned to the store by its former owner who lives in Spain. Mr Henn has said he will never sell the antique pint pot, which was originally presented to John Wesley Henn in 1872 by his brother Silas, who was the great-grandfather of the current owner. But the tankard can still be viewed at the city centre shop.

"We're always happy to have old bits of memorabilia or anything from our past," he said. "We are trying to piece together the shop's past so it all comes in handy."

"Because the store expanded from number 40, to numbers 40 and 41, and eventually to numbers 38 to 41, it can be a bit difficult."

The jewellers was founded by Thomas Austin in the 1800s.

Mr Henn said they dated the business back to 1847 as they have uncovered an old apprenticeship letter from the year – but said they suspect it may be even older than its official age. Thomas Austin's father, Silas Henn, was a Tipton-based clockmaker. And it was his son, Thomas Wesley Henn, who eventually took on the business after leaving being a radio operator during the First World War.

Buying up two adjoining shops in 1935, Thomas Wesley rebuilt the premises and doubled its size. By the 1950s, Alan Wesley Henn had joined the business and within a decade they owned eight stores.

However, the recession in the 1980s put a halt to the family's progress and so the company was forced to return to the original branch in Princess Street. John Henn, the latest in the family line to take on the job, has followed his grandfather in other ways.

In the 1930s, Thomas Wesley Henn climbed Mont Blanc using only basic equipment. Eighty years later, in May last year, John Henn climbed the same mountain for charity. He raised £10,000 for the Royal Marsden Cancer Hospital.

Up to the present day and John Henn promotes the £1 million sale

Don't tar all churches the same

RE: Mrs Round's letter, September 27
Please do not tar all churches with the same brush when you describe them as having "joined the rip-off brigade".

I doubt your letter will be read by the specific church in Birmingham or the people involved, as they are probably outside the area covered by the newspaper.

However, your adverse comments, directed at all churches, will have been read by a large number of Chronicle readers.

Many churches, up and down the country, use cafes, shops and tea rooms, generally staffed by volunteers, as a means of keeping these historic buildings open to the public, irrespective of belief or religion.

How sad it would be and a loss to society in general, if these ancient and significant buildings were generally padlocked from one Sunday to the next, except for weddings and funerals.

As an example St John's Church, in the centre of Halesowen, is a Grade 1 Listed Building, founded in 1083 and should be appreciated from the inside as well as the outside.

Volunteers, staffing a Fairtrade Shop and cafe, enable the church to be open every morning. You can sit in the peace and tranquility of the cloisters, where people have congregated for almost 1,000 years and you can get a pot of Fairtrade tea and a Fairtrade cookie for 80p.

Hardly a "rip-off" and I doubt an extra tea bag would be an issue.

So please, give other churches a chance, as they need and rely on the support of the community to keep these buildings open for everyone, now and for future generations.

Town venue could be centre of attraction

I AM surprised at the Black Country museum, not surprised at Dudley council.

The Hippodrome theatre is part of the Black Country and a jewel in the crown. It has a lot of history of the many and some artists that are no longer with us.

It could be used for what it was originally built for and the museum and zoo to give presentations on. It can be used as a conference centre.

Dudley council want the space of the Hippodrome for a car park, the town is surrounded by empty car parks, because there is little to go to Dudley for.

The Hippodrome is in the right area to bring in tourists, go to the museum or zoo, take in a show after.

There is no demand for the Hippodrome

WHAT are the people writing to the press in support of the Hippodrome on? Have they had a look at the state of this building?

Mr Osborne of Dudley was right, it is an eyesore and completely obscures the landscape of the zoo and the castle.

This building would cost millions to renovate and what most people don't realise is the stage on which all the "stars of the past" performed has long since gone.

People have got short memories, it wasn't too long ago the region nearly lost the Grand theatre, think about it, if a city like Wolverhampton only just kept its theatre what chance has the hippodrome of being a viable theatre again?

If it was so great why did it become a cinema, then bingo hall in the first place? It's called the law of supply and demand and there just isn't the demand in Dudley and people need to face up to it. In the current climate the council have bigger priorities and with the new college buildings and the plans for the Cavendish House site, things are starting to change in Dudley.

JOHN WRIGHT, Wrens Nest Road, Dudley

Offer of a cup of tea that's at a fair price

In response to Mrs D R Round's letter - September 27.

Regarding the cost of a cup of tea, she and her partner would be made very welcome if they were to drop in at St Andrew's Church, Bilston Street, Sedgley between 10 and 11.30am any Tuesday, Thursday or Friday.

A cup or mug of Fairtrade tea or coffee and a biscuit costs only 30p and if they care to take a copy of their letter, some proof of identification and this letter I will personally pay for their first cup. Churches are expensive buildings to maintain but we have different priorities when it comes to raising the money, so not all do it by charging commercial rates for every day items.

Carl Chinn in appeal for rethink on museum cuts

HISTORIAN Carl Chinn has made a passionate plea to the Black Country Living Museum urging bosses to reconsider their controversial cost-cutting plans which have put up to 70 job at risk.

He was among more than 150 staff, volunteers and museum supporters who packed into the Station Hotel in Dudley to air their views on the proposals last week. Many are upset about planned changes which include halving the number of costumed guides, from 80 to 40.

The museum also plans to change the way primary schoolchildren are guided around the site and introduce costumed learning assistants who will instead provide educational sessions, in order to try and make savings of £250,000 a year, after visitor numbers dropped by 15 per cent this year.

Professor Chinn said the costumed guides and the stories they told were an essential part of the museum.

Passionate

"I am so passionate about history because of the stories I've grown up with. What do guides do? They tell stories. I look around the room and I can see many guides, demonstrators and volunteers - you bring alive the Black Country Living Museum," he said.

"We have to give our kids hope. It's not just about the past. It's about telling them who they are and where they've come from. As a supporter, I say to the museum - stop, think, have a chat and listen. Let's see if we can find a middle way," he added.

Meeting chairman, John Homer, who has been a costumed guide for four and a half years, said the museum was "the jewel in the crown of the Black Country." He added: "Everybody is very passionate about the museum and are worried some of the ethos of the museum and what makes it so special will be lost."

He urged people to write to the trustees, local councillors and MPs to express their views on the plans.

Singers set bar high

Brian Williams, chair of the English Association of Male Voice Choirs, gives the cheque to Helen King at Birmingham Children's Hospital

CHORISTERS have set the bar high with a fundraising concert which raised nearly £3,000 to be split between two charities.

Male voice choirs from Warley, Cradley Heath and Kingswinford were among seven groups of singers who performed in July at Dudley Town Hall. There were also performances from soloist Louise Goode and the Holborne Brass Ensemble in front of 400 people.

Proceeds will be split between Burnaid and the Midland Air Ambulance - £1,423 for each. Geoff Clarke and Brian Williams visited Burnaid HQ at Birmingham Children's Hospital to present the cheque.

Legion chairman wants war memorial to have new home

A FRESH bid to move a borough war memorial to a permanent new home has been launched by a Royal British Legion branch chairman.

Ken Finch wants the monument in Woodsetton to be given a facelift and moved to a more prominent place. It stands inside the grounds of the former Mount Tabor Methodist Church in Sedgley Road. The church was sold to a factory in 1998 leaving the memorial, which commemorates soldiers killed in the First World War, looking out of place.

Councillor Finch, chairman of the Lower

Gornal branch, said residents were keen to find a spot for the monument where it could be seen by the whole of the community.

The Dudley borough councillor now plans to begin fundraising to cover the cost of the work and is also attempting to contact the owners of the site to find out whether the memorial could be moved.

Lovely

"It's a lovely memorial and it would be nice to move it to a place where it can be seen by more people and be involved in remembrance day events," said Councillor Finch. "The Royal British Legion branch has said it will do all it can to help so I am going to try to contact the owners of the site to get permission for it to be moved."

He added: "I would also like to restore the memorial which isn't in a bad state but it could do with a tidy up."

It is the second time residents have attempted to re-locate the memorial. In 2003 a group of volunteers, including staff from Bramford Primary School, began plans to move the monument.

But Councillor Finch said unfortunately the scheme never got off the ground.

Jail for man who wielded crowbar

A MAN who waved a crowbar around during a brawl in a busy high street has been jailed for 20 months.

Lea Brown was handed the weapon as trouble flared in Stourbridge during a night out with friends in the town.

The 27-year-old brandished the crowbar near the Wilkinson store as a running battle between his friends and another group ensued, Wolverhampton Crown Court heard yesterday. Father-of-one Brown, of Tanfield Road, Dudley, admitted affray.

Mrs Alka Brigue, prosecuting, said CCTV footage showed the defendant among two groups of people shouting at each other during the early hours of June 22.

The court was told Brown was passed the weapon by someone in a Renault Megane car. Two women tried to take the crowbar from Brown but he refused to hand it over.

Author returns to spread the word

Visiting author Dave Lowe, returning to his Stourbridge roots with Joshua Tombs and friends at Amblecote Primary

A CHILDREN'S author returning to his Stourbridge roots found time to visit pupils for an afternoon talk.

Dave Lowe, now based in Australia, called into Amblecote Primary School, in School Drive, Amblecote, to chat about his new book, My Hamster Is A Genius, and signed copies for pupils.

He also took an answer and question session from the pupils, who aged from six to nine.

His visit was arranged by the Dudley Children's Book Group. He was born and grew up in Dudley, but moved abroad to teach disadvantaged children.

Sledgehammer used to attack neighbour

A MAN who attacked his next-door neighbour with a sledgehammer for no apparent reason was today starting a 30-month jail term.

James Stanley, who was described by a judge as a "loose cannon", swung the weapon at 69-year-old David Fletcher after the pensioner had confronted him about smashing his house window and car with the sledgehammer just seconds earlier.

He then punched and kicked the victim up to five times to the head during the unprovoked attack in The Stray, Pensnett, at about 8.30pm on August 4.

Other neighbours "fortunately" managed to disarm the 35-year-old and detain him until police arrived, Wolverhampton Crown Court heard yesterday.

Prosecutor Miss Rhiannon Jones said Stanley and Mr Fletcher had "no previous history" and that there was no apparent reason for the attack taking place.

Miss Jones explained that the victim was "fortunate" to suffer minor injuries.

About £800 damage was caused to the car and house. Miss Sharon Jitbahia, defending, said her client had no memory of the incident and showed remorse over the attack.

Stanley admitted assault occasioning actual bodily harm, criminal damage as well as possession of an offensive weapon.

The driver of this Toyota MR2 which ploughed into a house in Pensnett Road escaped without serious injury

Lucky escape for family as car ends up inside kitchen

THESE images show the dramatic moment a car skidded along a grass bank before crashing into a house, smashing brickwork and leaving the vehicle a crumpled mess.

Skid marks at the scene show how the car travelled more than 100ft along the grass before hitting the house, which had a young family inside.

The Toyota MR2 sports car lost control after coming over the bridge in Pensnett Road, Brierley Hill, before hitting a curb and skidding down the grass slope.

It then went through a small wall and fence and into the three-bedroom house on what had just been a normal Thursday afternoon for the Poyner family inside, as they settled down watching television.

Grandmother Lesley Poyner, aged 48, and her two children Stacey Havins and Rebecca Poyner had been inside with the family's two babies and two older children.

After hearing a loud bang she walked into the kitchen to find the front bonnet of sports car nestled in the corner of the room.

Shock

Mrs Poyner's husband Roger immediately returned home from work.

The 45-year-old stood watching as contractors from the council boarded up holes in the house.

He is now waiting to be given advice from the insurance company before repairs can start.

He said: "My family is still in shock."

"And it could have been so worse, just thank God no-one was in the kitchen when the car came through."

The female driver was cut out of the wreckage by fire-fighters and taken to Russells Hall Hospital but her injuries are not believed to be serious.

Community forums will be used for discussions

AREA committee meetings in Dudley will be scrapped and replaced with "community forums" under new plans revealed by council bosses.

The proposals will see nine new forums set up with the aim of making it easier for people to report and discuss issues with the council.

Area committee meetings are currently held in Brierley Hill, Halesowen, Stourbridge and Central and North Dudley. But council bosses say they are too formal and do not give people the chance to discuss concerns.

Councillor David Sparks, leader of Dudley Council, said: "The area committees had become too bureaucratic and formal which puts people off from coming along and defeats the purpose."

"This is about giving public meetings back to the public, by making them simpler and more accessible, where the public attending them will set the agenda by the issues they raise."

"The new forums will focus more on local issues and those things that matter to the people living there."

Specific
"As a result, every forum will be different as it needs to reflect the specific communities we are working with and the different issues that affect those communities."

A public consultation will run until November 9, and the proposals will then go before councillors.

Move for probation staff

PLANS for a new two-storey headquarters for around 80 probation staff in Dudley have been approved.

The workers, currently based in Dudley, Stourbridge, Netherton and Halesowen, will move into the purpose-built base at Castlegate Business Park.

The offices run by Staffordshire and West Midlands Probation Trust in Stourbridge, Netherton and Halesowen will shut.

Offender management staff based at Dudley Magistrates' Court will also relocate to the new building. A planning application was submitted to Dudley Council by developer Stoford, which has been contracted by the Ministry of Justice.

Planning permission has now been granted by the council and construction is expected to be completed by next September but the Ministry of Justice will not reveal the cost of the project.

Under the plans, interview rooms and group meeting rooms will be created on the ground floor. On the first floor there will be open-plan office space and an archives section. A car park with 34 spaces, two electrical vehicle charging points and cycle storage are included in the plan.

Black Country role in nation's history

DVD

Michael Wood The Great British Story: A People's History

HISTORIAN Michael Wood's recent BBC2 TV series looking at the story of the British is now available on DVD (Acorn Media, 480 minutes on three discs, for around £25.99).

The Black Country features prominently in the series. Wood calls at a pub comedy night to find out that the bostin' local accent is close to pure Anglo-Saxon and there are scenes from the Black Country Living Museum over the importance of the women chainmakers' strike in working class history.

It is laudable how Wood concentrates on the lives of ordinary people rather than monarchs and politicians, and the series is beautifully shot. He does have a tendency towards sentimentality and seldom challenges the assumption that Brits are always jolly decent.

He also has an annoying habit of illustrating phrases with obvious images, for example, saying Britain enjoyed the 'umbrella' of Roman protection means images of folks sheltering under umbrellas.

That aside, there is lots to learn from this series. Some may be surprised to learn that the Welsh and their Celtic cousins are the true Britons and that North African and Arab Romans lived in England before there were any people called the English.

Rowling's revenge on middle class muggles

BOOK

The Casual Vacancy – J K Rowling (Little Brown, hardback, £20)

IT'S fear and loathing in rural England in Rowling's The Casual Vacancy (Little Brown, £20), her first adult novel.

The self-satisfied market town of Pagford becomes the backdrop for a class war when a parish councillor drops dead.

Skeletons come tumbling out of cupboards as council candidates take positions over the divisive issue of the substance abuse centre at Pagford's council estate. The estate is full of city overspill acting like they were in TV's Shameless (just substitute West Country accents for Mancunian).

Rowling uses expletives with the lusty abandon of a writer who had to mind her language when writing about a certain boy wizard. Sadly, her cast of middle class muggles, their resentful kids and the feared chav underclass is largely made up of stereo-

JK Rowling – adult novel types. If Rowling really wanted to get her own back on the fussy, curtain-twitching, muggles of middle England, it would have been more fun if she had unleashed Deathly eaters on them.

Good as Rowling is, and this is well-plotted, she is not a modern day Charles Dickens, at least, not yet.

Sandi's secret and views from the pub

Sandi Toksvig, Birmingham Town Hall

NOW I know Sandi's secret. Of course how could anyone with such wit, quickness and quirkiness be anything else but downright joyful.

This veteran comedian, writer and presenter opened her show to an apt blast of Beethoven's Ode to Joy and wrapped us in the emotion for the best part of two hours.

Her one-woman show delivered a marvellous evening of entertainment, mixing a modicum of observational stand-up with reflections on her upbringing, school-life, career, friends and being the other side of 50.

Her tales were either heart-warming or hilarious and were told with that distinctive voice we learnt had more to do with Brief Encounter's Celia Johnson than we ever dreamed possible.

She even taught us a little Danish and when she invited us to join in conducting the closing Beethoven piece, she had made us all so joyful that we had no hesitation.

Sarah Cowen-Strong

Al Murray, New Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham

THE pub landlord was on fine form as he forced a near sell-out crowd to join him in singing Baa Baa Black Sheep, just to break free from the shackles of the PC brigade.

Scottish independence was another topic tackled by Al Murray as he urged them to go on the condition 'they took Liverpool with them.'

Murray also dished out a parenting lesson, thoughts on the Government, the Euro crisis, the Jubilee – "wasn't it good to hear Cliff Richard singing the same songs he sang for Queen Victoria?" – and the Olympic Games.

While praising the British athletes, he did have a word to say about their celebrations: "Some of them were crying when they won," he said. "The only athletes that cry should be the Chinese ones that come fourth."

Food help in the can

A SUPERMARKET in Stourbridge has been encouraging its customers to donate food to charity.

Sainsbury's in Amblecote, organised its second annual Million Meal Appeal at the weekend.

Hundreds of customers donated tinned goods to 720 charities and community projects across the region.

The event was attended by the Mayor of Dudley, Councillor Melvyn Mottram and Mayoress Michelle Mottram, who handed out leaflets to shoppers inviting them to donate items to the appeal.

Andy White, Sainsbury's community affairs manager, said: "We hope from this years campaign that we can further raise the awareness of food poverty in the UK and support those charities and projects that need our help."

Mother claiming disability benefit regularly used gym

A MOTHER-OF-THREE who received £4,000 in benefits after claiming she had severe mobility problems was seen regularly using a gym, a court heard.

Aaisha Arif was a member at the Crystal Leisure Centre in Stourbridge and had not mentioned any disability problems to staff, Dudley Magistrates Court heard.

The 42-year-old had also been captured on video surveillance equipment walking normally in Brierley Hill High Street and by her home.

Circumstances

Arif, of Kingsway, Wollaston, Stourbridge, pleaded guilty to two charges of failing to notify change of circumstances affecting entitlement to social security benefit.

One related to claims for Disability Living Allowance between January 26, 2011, and September 13 this year. The second charge regarding claims for Disability Living Allowance between January 20 last year and April 4 2012. In total, £4,153 was claimed between January 26, 2011, and April 4 2012.

Chairman of the bench Mr Leonard Redden fined Arif £290 with a £15 victim surcharge and £85 costs. She has already agreed to pay back the benefits to the Department for Work and Pensions.

Miss Lynda Gudgeon, prosecuting, said Arif received Disability Living Allowance in June 2007 after claiming she was "severely restricted" in her movement. But when benefits officers checked last year they found she was a member at the Bell Street centre.

Miss Gudgeon added when leisure staff, including the gym manager, were questioned, they said they were unaware Arif had "any issues regarding her disability".

Mr Sundip Murria, defending, said: "This is a case where the initial application was a correct application as she did have mobility problems."

Help needed over attack near station

Police want to speak to this man caught on CCTV

This man is also being sought by investigating officers

A WOMAN was sexually assaulted and robbed near a railway station in the Black Country. Police have looked through CCTV footage from the time of the attack and have released images of two men to whom they would like to speak.

Officers say the men might have witnessed something to help the inquiry. The assault happened near Lye railway station. The woman, who has learning difficulties, was also robbed of her phone and music player. She was sitting on a wall at a factory unit at the time.

The 21-year-old was asked for a cigarette by a man and had a conversation with him before he assaulted her.

He then ran off in the direction of the station. De Kim Humphreys, from the public protection unit in Halesowen, said: "These men were captured on CCTV at a nearby petrol station just prior to the assault."

Distressed

"We would like to speak to them to see if they saw something which will lead us to the attacker."

"We would also like to hear from anyone who recognises them or from anyone who was in the area at the time and may have seen anything," De Humphreys added.

"The young woman was very distressed by her ordeal and would like to see her attacker brought to justice to prevent this happening to someone else."

The attacker is described as 6ft and of mixed race and with a scarring on his left arm, which formed the shape of dots. He was wearing a red top with a pattern, with blue jeans, a black belt and light trainers. The attack happened on August 11 at around 12.30pm. Anyone with information about the incident should call 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Why have a conservatory when you can have an Orangery from £9,999

Imagine an elegant and comfortable room, a warm and bright space that is the envy of all. This is what an orangery will bring to your home. Relax in style on warm summer days and enjoy a feeling of comfort and warmth on long winter evenings.

Orangeries provide a unique multi-purpose living space for every home, from kitchen extension, living room, dining room or playroom. Our orangery uses the market leading Global roof with a well-engineered internal pel met framework, which is then plastered, giving the roof a perimeter ceiling all the way round. Within this perimeter roof you can choose to add down lighters or audio speakers, giving you the opportunity to personalise your new room.

The gutter line of the roof of the orangery is hidden from view by a decorative cornice that rises above the flat section and this cornice conceals the orangery gutter for a more attractive external appearance. A fully glazed conservatory might not be to everyone's taste, therefore the combination of traditionally built features and glazing of an orangery creates a more substantial and interesting effect.

Waitress tells tales of career

ALDRIDGE TOWNSWOMEN

DURING the summer break members enjoyed a trip to The Black Country Museum which was an enormous success.

The September meeting saw several new members who were warmly welcomed and many dates were written in dairies including Christmas dinner, a visit to the Cannock and Cinema Organ Club and the Federation tea.

The autumn programme kicked off with a talk on The Little Black Dress by Molly Murray, who told of how she started her career as a waitress in 1969 at the Swan, Yardley.

Her experiences saw her at many banquets and venues. One was at the NEC opening, which was attended by the Queen and Birmingham councillors. At a Young Farmers' dinner, Lapworth Molly and her colleagues served soup, tripe with cheese and crusty cobs, while the farmers enjoyed strippers for their entertainment. She was allowed to take some tripe home for her father.

In the 70s Molly attended 32 weddings in one year. She also served at Silverstone and polo matches.

Aldridge Townswomen's Guild meet at Aldridge Community Centre on the fourth Monday of the month at 2pm. On October 22 John Llewellyn will talk of 'A Trip to Turkey' and all members old and new will be most welcome to come for a chat and a cuppa.

'Old bag in the attic' is speaker's subject

The Ruskin Glass Centre in Stourbridge is the venue for a forthcoming visit

SPEAKER for September's meeting was Ashley Adams and her topic 'The Old Bag in the Attic', a most thought provoking title.

To illustrate her talk Mrs Adams brought along a collection of Victorian and Edwardian luggage, all solid leather, ranging from a tiny case containing a folding iron, plus means of heating this, and an enormous case, large enough to transport much of "madam's" wardrobe.

Mrs Adams was thanked for an entertaining talk and for stepping in when the scheduled speaker was unable to attend. Information was given out on forthcoming activities. A visit has been arranged to the Ruskin Glass Centre on October 30, to include a cream tea. Christmas lunch will be at the Mill Hotel on December 4.

"Bees and Honey" will be the subject of the talk at the October meeting.

A classic close to perfection

Swan Lake, Birmingham Hippodrome
A CLOSE to perfect production by Birmingham Royal Ballet of the best known of all ballet works was an absolute treat.

There was no tinkering with the classic ingredients, this was Peter Wright's 1981 choreography derived from late 19th century work of Ivanov and Petipa.

Costumes

The sumptuous Eastern European costumes matched the lush romanticism of Tchaikovsky's music, played with vigour by the Royal Ballet Sinfonia.

On Saturday Yorkshire ballerina Natasha

Oughtred, almost as expressive with her eyes as her feet, danced the dual role of Odette/Odile, and the powerful Matthew Lawrence was her prince. Their energy was thrilling. Their control awesome.

The famous scene which begins act IV, in which 'swans' rise from the misty lake, drew an appreciative gasp from the audience.

Let other productions break barriers – keep this production preserved like a listed monument for future generations.

It bodes well for a magical Cinderella from the company at the Hippodrome from November 21.

Leon Burakowski

Superstar a revelation

Jesus Christ Superstar, NIA, Birmingham

MORE than 40 years since it was created by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, the showbiz lord can be satisfied that his rock opera Jesus Christ Superstar finally got the spectacular arena treatment in the UK he first envisaged when aged in his 20s.

In his programme notes, Lloyd Webber said he was always as much into Led Zeppelin as Rodgers and Hammerstein and it showed in this loud, brash and passionate production.

The story of Christ's betrayal, trial and crucifixion was updated to the 21st century, with Jesus and his disciples amid anti-capitalist protesters and rioters.

Former Radio 1 DJ Chris Moyles had a five minute cameo in a red crushed-velvet suit but nearly stole the show as King Herod, the TV quiz host of 'Lord or Fraud'. His ragtime number included one of Rice's best lines – "prove to me that you're no fool, walk across my swimming pool."

Ben Forster and former Spice Girl Melanie C in Jesus Christ Superstar

Melanie C played a tattooed Mary Magdalene and made I Don't Know How To Love Him her own. Alex Hanson added gravitas as Pontius Pilate, a slick lawyer who runs out of patience with Jesus and the squabbling Jews.

In the first act TV talent show winner Ben Forster, as Jesus, was overshadowed by Tim Minchin's mercurial, thrilling portrayal of Judas. The Australian singer-songwriter is known as a comedian and co-creator of West End hit Matilda but he brought rock star glamour and utter conviction to the role of Judas. The dreadlocked apostle rails against God for using him and his friend Jesus as pawns in his plan before a chilling realistic suicide by hanging.

It made Forster raise his game. Something clicked in the garden of Gethsemane and his voice and charisma burst through like a dam breaking.

Powerful

When a crown of thorns was thrust upon his head and his bloody body raised aloft on a lighting rig crucifix, as he screamed with anguish, it was one of the most powerful scenes I have seen on stage. It left the audience stunned, until thunderous applause and people rose from their seats in a standing ovation.

I had previously thought of Jesus Christ Superstar as a dated oddity from the hippy era. So this impressive production was nothing short of a revelation.

Lots of laughs on a night out with Bouncers

Bouncers, Wolverhampton Grand
THERE were plenty of laugh-out-loud moments with Bouncers at the Grand Theatre.

This riot of a show injects a good mix of humour, energy and satire. The clubbing scene of any city is told from three perspectives – the bouncers, girls celebrating a 21st birthday and a group of young men on a lads' night out.

There were outstanding performances from Ace Bhatti, Don Gilet, William Ilkley and Ian Reddington who effortlessly played all the characters. Their transformation into female characters at the hairdressers, later dancing round their handbags in the club, brought the house down.

Les Jowett

Sensational 60s

The Sensational 60s Experience, Wolverhampton Grand
SILVER-haired teenagers packed the Grand, eager to relive their youth.

Changes to the original line ups of the groups didn't deter from the brilliant music. This included The Tremeloes with Silence is Golden, Herman's Hermits with I'm Into Something Good, Union Gap's Young Girl and the Ivy League's Tossing and Turning.

The bands converged for a rock 'n' roll finale that brought everyone onto their feet.

Ayckbourn's chilling ghost story will haunt the Grand

A PLAY that theatre-goers have described as the most chilling ghost story on stage since The Woman in Black is coming to Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre next week.

Haunting Julia, by Sir Alan Ayckbourn, tells of the strange happenings that occur 12 years after the death of teenager Julia, a musical prodigy who died from an overdose.

War Horse gallops to Brum stage

THE National Theatre's acclaimed production of War Horse is coming to Birmingham as part of its first UK tour next year.

Nick Stafford's play set in the First World War, based on the novel by Michael Morpurgo, has been one of the biggest theatre success stories of recent years. The book was made into a movie by Steven Spielberg.

It is at Birmingham Hippodrome from October 17 to November 9 next year. Tickets go on sale in January. Other blockbusters coming to the Hippodrome next year include The Phantom of the Opera in spring and The Lion King in summer.

Her grieving father, who has created a shrine to his dead daughter, brings in Julia's former boyfriend and a psychic to investigate.

Supernatural
Popular playwright Ayckbourn is best known for his comedies but this tense supernatural thriller, where any laughter tends to be of the nervous kind, has become increasingly popular due to recent revivals.

The four-hander play features TV actor Duncan Preston, of Dinnerladies and Emmerdale, as the father.

Stage and TV veteran Richard O'Callaghan, who had the lead role in two Carry On films, plays the psychic. The boyfriend is played by Joe McFadden, a familiar TV face from Heartbeat (as PC Joe Mason) and Cranford (as Dr Marshland).

Haunting Julia is staged at the Grand from Monday to Saturday, October 15-20.

Star cast sign up for 9 To 5 job

A STAR-STUDED cast has been announced for Dolly Parton's 9 To 5: The Musical, this year's big Christmas time show at the New Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham.

Playing Doralee, the role that made Dolly a movie star in the original 1980 film version, will be Amy Lennox. She has been playing Elle Woods in the West End production of Legally Blonde and local theatre-goers may remember her in the lead role of Birmingham Rep's The Secret Garden.

In the story about female office workers who get revenge on a sexist male boss, the boss will be played by West End leading man and former The Bill actor Ben Richards. Also appearing will be Bonnie Langford, who earlier this year starred in Spamalot at the Alex; Two Pints of Lager... actress Natalie Casey; also actress and comic Jackie Clune.

The show is staged from December 17 to January 5.

Decades vie for best music title

JOHN Lennon or Madonna, The Beatles or Michael Jackson?

Paddy McGuinness

Take Me Out ITV1, 7.05pm
Paddy McGuinness must have the best job in telly – he spends his time surrounded by beautiful women. However, there's just one downside to his job – all the ladies are off limits and reserved for the men he has lined up for them. Oh, and the fact that he's married probably wouldn't take him very far either. Mr McGuinness returns tonight with yet more ever-hopeful men, aiming to win the heart of one of the 30 women, and whisk them off on a date. Thrown into the mix this week are a pair of Cambridge twins hoping to nab a double date, a yoga instructor and a farmer.

Fiona Bruce

Antiques Roadshow

BBC1, 8.30pm
Britain loves a good antique. You only have to take into consideration the longevity and popularity of this BBC stalwart show, itself something of a much-treasured oldie, to see that that much is true. This week, Fiona and the team wind up in Cheltenham Town Hall where they meet more hopefuls looking to learn the worth of their collectibles. As always, we get a glimpse of the weird and the wonderful, including a curious table from the famous local racecourse, and possibly the most important single historic document ever seen on the show.

Clive's transformation

A working union between two dental professionals is helping to bring about life-changing outcomes. Retired sales director Clive, right, with wife Margaret, was terrified of dentists. Read why now he's recommending his friends book in to see them.

A Navy nightmare is finally overcome by the power of creative dentistry

Suction solution

A CUTTING-EDGE development to help resolve the stability problems faced by thousands of denture wearers is now available.

Denturist Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng) says the invention has the potential to improve the life quality of those experiencing long-term problems with ill-fitting teeth. The Ultra Suction teeth are held in place by tiny valve-operated suction devices.

All on 4 now here

ONE of the most advanced restorative options for denture wearers is available in Wolverhampton and Dudley. An implant system called All on 4 offers a permanently retained full arch of teeth in a day. Call us for more details.

Traditional options

THE work of the Denture Clinic has found satisfied customers from as far away as Spain. Its hand-crafted dentures, made in laboratories on the premises, are known for their natural look. Clinic principal Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng), says: "I remain passionate about resolving denture problems and for many, quality, traditional dentures can bring about hugely effective results."

CLIVE was so afraid of the dentist he plucked up all of his courage and begged him to extract all of his teeth so that he'd never have problems ever again.

That was more than 20 years ago, but what the retired sales director didn't know was that his tooth troubles were far from over.

Following the extractions dentures were fitted and he no problems for a few years. It was a welcome break from the pain he had experienced and the catalogue of dental disasters he had endured.

But the natural ageing process began to take its toll and Clive experienced stability problems with the lower denture as his gums receded. For five years he endured the embarrassment of dentures, sore spots on his gums and denying himself some of his favourite foods. "It took real determination to face up to the problem and the prospect of more dental work."

Clive recalls his first dental nightmare: Stationed at Malta while in the Royal Navy, he suddenly had raging toothache the night before he was due to play in a football match.

"I'd been drinking to dull the pain but as soon as I was back on board the duty dentists was summoned. He'd been drinking too and when he injected me with the anaesthetic he broke the needle.

"I eventually had to have an X-ray so he could find where the needle was. That was me finished. I'd do anything to avoid the dentist from then on."

In recent years Clive has had four den-ture relines to help the stability issues, but none provided a long-term solution.

Flashing his new smile and laughing heartily, Clive adds: "Things were so bad that if I turned to the right my teeth would still be facing forward."

"I can't stress how big a deal it was for me to get things sorted. I was terrified, so when I saw a piece in the paper about Steven Burchell and suction denture technology, I agreed to see him."

Clive's gum erosion was too severe for the suction system to work effectively and he decided to have implant-retained dentures. He was referred by Mr Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng), whose Denture Clinic is based at the Parkdale Dental Clinic in Tettenhall Road, Wolverhampton, and North Street, Dudley, to implantologist Mr Jonathon Pugh BDS MSc. Mr Pugh, principal of the Parkdale practice, carried out the surgery and the prosthetics were hand-crafted by Mr Burchell.

Clive recalls the procedure. "I was dreading it, but all I felt was a sensation that Mr Pugh was rubbing my gums." Clive's wife, Margaret, adds: "It's true! I was allowed to sit in with Clive. We were both treated excellently."

Since having the implant-retained dentures, Clive has been able to bite into crispy apples and indulge himself with pork crackling. "I feel comfortable and confident, it's the best money I've ever spent and have recommended both Steve and Jon to friends."

Pick of the Week

An explosive evening is in store for the family

It's February 2011, and Twitter starts buzzing with requests from stars to watch Friday Night Dinner, the new sitcom from Robert Popper.

As a producer of Peep Show and script editor on The Inbetweeners, he certainly earned his comedy stripes, but at the time it was anyone's guess whether FND would be a hit.

It helped that Popper secured the services of two of the hottest talents in British comedy – Tamsin Greig (Black Books, Episodes) and Simon Bird (The Inbetweeners).

The fact it was backed by one of Blighty's most successful producers, Nina Park (Shaun of the Dead, Hot Fuzz), was an added bonus. (Popper has tiny roles in both movies in case you were wondering).

The concept of FND was simplicity itself: each episode took place over the course of a Friday night, as twenty-something brothers Adam (Bird) and Jonny (Tom Rosenthal) went round to their parents' Jackie and Martin Goodman, for dinner.

It didn't hurt that Mark Heap, the king of offbeat characters such as eccentric artist Brian in Spaced and creepy medic Alan in Green Wing, would often steal the show.

Though only a secondary character, his turn as the Goodmans' neighbour Jim Bell – loosely inspired by one of Popper's neighbours, who acted like Salvador Dali – soon became must-see viewing, especially as Jim's interest with Jackie borders on obsessive.

That he was terrified of his own Belgian Shepherd, Wilson, also led to many hilarious interludes. While some sitcoms such as The Big Bang Theory benefit from a high gag-per-minute count, others such as this show have more of a slow drip effect.

All of which brings us to this second run (Sunday, Channel 4, 10pm), and adhering to the well-worn formula 'If it ain't broke, don't fix it', Mr Popper's sitcom is still milking the same formula of domestic awkwardness and nosy neighbours.

This week, Grandma (Frances Cuka) introduces the family to her new boyfriend, but the seasoned curmudgeon soon upsets everyone with his rude behaviour.

Dad (Paul Ritter) cannot stand him and hides in his shed, but nobody is prepared for what happens when the guest suddenly loses his temper.

A good rule of thumb for any wordsmith is 'write what you know', which may be one of the reasons Popper's semi-autobiographical sitcom touches a chord with millions, including his family.

"It's very loosely based on them," he explained in one interview. "Although there are a few scenes which are completely, 100 per cent lifted from stuff that happened in my house."

Friday Night Dinner's success has not gone unnoticed across the Pond, and NBC has recently been planning a version for the all important American market.

The West Wing's Allison Janney and Monk's Tony Shalhoub have been cast as mum and dad for a pilot episode, with The Office's Greg Daniels penning the Stateside edition.

Whether that goes to a full series is anyone's guess, but if it does there's a good bet Mr Popper will be laughing all the way to the bank.

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Classic Car Rescue

Channel 5, 8pm

When Ford unveiled their latest model, the Mustang, in 1964, the company's big cheeses hoped it would do well, but had no idea it would be their most successful vehicle since the Model A. Punters fell in love with it, and it soon became one of Hollywood's favourite vehicles too with models popping up in 007 epics Goldfinger and Diamonds are Forever, but perhaps the greatest showcase was 1968 classic Bullitt. Steve McQueen driving it through the streets of San Francisco left an indelible mark on the minds of millions. Can Bernie Fineman and Mario Pacione restore a model for this week's show? There's only one way to find out.

Sing for Your Life

Channel 4, 8pm

Say what you like about Channel 4, but when they've got something to plug, there's nothing half-hearted about their efforts. And so this week, as they continue their fundraising campaign with Cancer Research UK, you're about to learn a heck of a lot more about terminal illnesses that claim eight million lives every year. This programme focuses on the Big C Choir which is made up of an inspiring group of people, who (yes, you've probably guessed), have all been or are receiving treatment for cancer. And while it's helped by the fact they're trained by the best (Emel Sande and Russell Watson), it's not the easiest of challenges, as they juggle treatment sessions and rehearsals...

TUESDAY

Live International Football

ITV1, 7.30pm

England continue their quest to reach the 2014 World Cup finals in Brazil, with this evening's Group H qualifier away to Poland, staged at the National Stadium in Warsaw. The match looks to be one of the most challenging for Roy Hodgson's men, as they face a Polish side aiming to impress their fans following a poor showing at Euro 2012, which they co-hosted with Ukraine, but crashed out of at the group stage without winning a game. Poland played twice at this venue, drawing on each occasion, and will look to Borussia Dortmund striker Robert Lewandowski to add to his growing reputation against an England defence that will be without former captain John Terry, who has retired from international football.

WEDNESDAY

Who Do You Think You Are?

BBC1, 9pm

Although retired footballer John Barnes played internationally for England, he was born in Jamaica and lived there until he was 13. Unsurprisingly, he journeys back to the island of his birth to investigate his ancestors in the penultimate edition. Barnes pays particular attention to the role his grandfather played in Jamaica's fight for independence from Britain and the time he spent behind bars during the Second World War. Barnes also wants to know why, after being so prominent, his relative eventually became unpopular with his former political allies. We've seen him impress on the pitch and swivel his hips on Strictly, but here we get to see yet another side to his personality.

THURSDAY Emmerdale at 40 ITV1, 8.30pm

The Yorkshire soap has been celebrating its 40th birthday with a week of drama featuring births, marriages and a death. But while fans may be busy speculating about who will die and whether Chas can really go through with saying 'I do' to Dan, it's also a good time to look back on some of the soap's biggest storylines from years gone by. This new series starts off with a look at the plots that grabbed the headlines, including the 1993 story that saw Zoe Tate coming out to her old-fashioned, homophobic father – and some equally shocked viewers. Emmerdale at 40 also covers the arrival of Patsy Kensit as Sadie King, and the heartbreaking plot that saw Laurel and Ashley losing baby Daniel.

Emmerdale at 40, Thursday, ITV1, 8.30pm

FRIDAY

Stand Up to Cancer

Channel 4, 7.30pm

Cancer is no laughing matter, so like Comic Relief, there are bound to be a few serious moments in this info-tainment strand, which promises to educate and inform, but at the same time raise a few laughs at a disease which has affected millions of us. Channel 4 staples Dr Christian Jessen, Davina McCall and Alan Carr are present and correct, while the show is heaving with famous faces doing their bit for a good cause. X Factor veterans Cheryl Cole and Leona Lewis will be adding their dulcet tones to proceedings; there are editions of Chatty Man and The Million Pound Drop Live, while Derren Brown and a mystery celebrity take part in Paintball Russian Roulette.

Eddie Stobart: Trucks and Trailers

Channel 5, 8pm

For many of us growing up in the 1970s, trucking was as dynamic as Disco, and in recent years the success of Ice Road Truckers and this show has helped rekindle that interest extra vehicular activities. And if you do like to keep on trucking, then you might be keen on Eddie Stobart's new eco-friendly trailer, which can hold 20 per cent more goods than a regular carrier. Mark Dixon tests it out, but soon discovers the additional capacity poses fresh challenges. Meanwhile in Southport, Jimmy Callaghan has trouble negotiating bollards, and the company's annual festival, one of the biggest events in the trucking calendar, leaves the drivers rather excited.

Well-maintained home for £95,000

NUMBER 29 Broad Street in Coseley is on the market for £95,000 and is described by the agent Taylors, as a 'significantly modernised' and 'conscientiously maintained' starter house.

The three-bed semi has a refitted kitchen and bathroom with white suite, spacious garden and viewings come highly recommended.

The ground floor accommodation consists of a reception hall, separate dining room, lounge to the rear and kitchen which measures 9ft 11 x 6ft 4in with under stair pantry.

Upstairs, the landing has doors leading to three bedrooms and a bathroom. Each of the rooms has a coved ceiling, double-glazed window and radiator while the bathroom has a contemporary suite with shower, hand wash basin, WC and chrome-effect heated towel rail.

Outside, the front of the house has been paved providing parking and low maintenance flower beds while the rear garden, which is accessed via a timber gate, has an extensive lawn area with central patio and substantial brick store.

There are also numerous soft fruit trees, a herb garden and raspberry, blackcurrant, gooseberry and rhubarb shrubs.

Via can be arranged via the Sedgley office on 01902 880 888 or visit www.taylors-estateagents.co.uk for further details.

Taylors is marketing this 'significantly modernised' property

After hearty modernisation, a contemporary interior awaits the buyer of number 29 Broad Street in Coseley

Why it can be cheaper to buy rather than go renting

ASPIRING homebuyers can find out how purchasing a brand new home could be cheaper than renting by visiting their choice of Taylor Wimpey developments across the Midlands.

Rents went up across the country by more than four per cent last year - with the average homeowner spending around £130 per month less than a typical tenant who is renting an identical property.

The good news is that purchasing a Taylor Wimpey home is an affordable alternative to lining landlords' pockets, thanks to the great-value prices and helpful homebuyer incentives available at the leading housebuilder's developments around the region.

At Highfield Gardens in Edgbaston, for example, qualifying first-time buyers can access a stylish one-bedroom apartment for 80 per cent of its £149,995 full price under the FirstBuy scheme - that's just £119,996, including a five per cent deposit of only £7,500.

The lucky first-time buyer who snaps up this high-quality home can then look forward to monthly mortgage repayments as low as £512 - about £287 less than comparable rental fees!

Anne Wallace, regional sales and marketing director for Taylor Wimpey, says: "The long-term forecast points to rents going up and up, putting even more of a squeeze on the finances of many would-be buyers, while low interest rates are making life more affordable for many homeowners."

At our developments in the Midlands we can help make it easier for prospective purchasers to step on the property ladder and start investing in their own futures.

"And with over 800 high loan-to-value mortgage deals available right now, there's no reason for would-be buyers to get stuck in a rental rut."

Homeownership

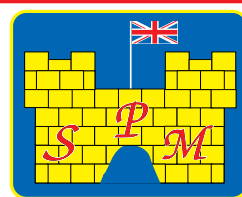

FirstBuy works through a joint loan of 20 per cent from the Homes and Communities Agency and Taylor Wimpey, which is repayable at the end of the 25-year mortgage term or when the property is sold.

Eligible

To be eligible, purchasers must be first-time buyers and their total household earnings should be less than £60,000.

This exceptional route into homeownership is also available at the Diglis Water development in Worcester, where one-bedroom apartments are priced from £129,995 (80 per cent FirstBuy price of £103,996), and at the Poppyfields development in Evesham, where two-bedroom houses are priced from £161,995 (80 per cent FirstBuy price of £129,596).

Further information about Taylor Wimpey developments across the region is available by calling 01926 516900 or at www.taylorwimpey.co.uk/midlands

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

The chassis remains the same but the model line has undergone a complete refresher

Seat offers first glimpse of lighter and leaner Leon

SEAT has released the first images and details of the all-new Leon, which is the Spanish brand's headline display at this year's Paris Motor Show.

The Leon, said to be the most advanced car that Spanish car maker Seat has ever made, will be the first model of a completely refreshed model line based on much the same chassis.

Thanks to a number of new production processes, the car is 90kg lighter than its predecessor, which in turn helps performance and emissions.

Choice

An Ecomotive version which is claimed to emit 99g/km of CO2 has been confirmed, along with a choice of petrol and diesel engines. These powerplants make great leaps forward in terms of emissions, while being no less or even more powerful than before.

A five-door Leon will come first, followed by three-door 'SC' and estate 'ST' versions.

SE and FR specifications will be on show, with more reserved and sportier styling respectively.

PETER JOHNSON was the star turn as Dudley Sports Under-13s hit the comeback trail style to clip Forest Falcons West's wings.

Sports were left rocking after the Falcons opened up a 2-0 lead.

Johnson cut the deficit before half-time and then hit the back of the net a further four times to fire Sports to a 10-2 success.

Cameron Wilkinson offered some goalscoring support with a brace while Conner Gordon, Josh Worrall and Connor Gordon all scored once.

Juniad Tariq netted twice to help table-topping Dudley Sports Dynamos Under-14s beat Warley Borough 3-0.

George Taylor added the other goal for Sports as they made it five wins out of five.

Jimmy Williams netted a consolation as Dudley Sports Juniors Under-14s went down 7-1 to Dudley Juniors.

Dudley Sports Under-16s had to settle for a point after sharing six goals with AFC Hinkford.

Will Spruce hit a double for Sports with Ollie Westburry also on target.

Pottinger and Heathens reeling from KO

WILL POTTINGER admits Sunday's Knockout Cup defeat at Mildenhall was the toughest day in his three years in charge of Dudley Heathens.

And he says the team now face a big challenge to bounce back and win silverware after losing Byron Bekker to injury.

Bekker suffered back and knee injuries at West Row after a collision with team-mate Dan Greenwood.

And Pottinger said: "It was a hard day on Sunday and we were all very down, not just about the result but about the injury to Byron. We've been the best team in the league all season and this happens at the crunch.

"It's such a shame but we have to cover for him as best we can and try to lift everyone.

"I'd say Sunday was probably the toughest day in my time in charge here so far.

"Byron has been a credit to the club this season. He has become a very popular member of the team.

"He's always got time for the fans and I know they appreciate that. It was such a savage blow to us when we lost him.

"It certainly affected the rest of the boys too, we struggled badly without him and it hit Dan Greenwood in particular, he was devastated by the crash.

"But it's time for us to lift ourselves and try to win it for Byron.

"We're not going to give up hope in the Knockout Cup although we've got a mountain to climb so we really need the support of the fans on October 23.

"You could see how badly hit our boys were by the incident at Mildenhall and we were never able to recover from that.

"Mildenhall rode superbly and took full advantage.

"It was one of those days and now we have a challenge to try to bounce back. We need to show some character and give it everything we've got."

Pottinger has also paid tribute to the loyal Heathens fans who travelled to West Row in big numbers.

He said: "Our fans are amazing and all the boys really appreciate the backing we get from them.

"It's very much appreciated and we're going to need them in the remaining meetings of the season, that's for sure. We were all feeling a bit down and felt sorry for ourselves after the meeting on Sunday but we have the chance to hit back."

Meanwhile, Heathens fans are reminded there are still tickets available for the club's awards night on Friday, November 2.

Almost 300 have already gone and the event, which features live music from the Magoos, takes place at the Venue Conference Centre, High Street, Dudley. Tickets are £10 and available from the track shop or the official website shop.

Harrison stars to sink the leaders

Stourbridge & District Youth League

STOURBRIDGE JUNIORS UNDER-11s turned on the style to send table-topping Trysull packing in Division One.

Mitchell Harrison led the way with a hat-trick as Stourbridge won 8-2.

Callum Lawton (2), Jack Wright, Jordan Edwards and Donovan Westwood completed the scoring.

Two first-half goals from Jack Guest fired Halas Hawks Under-15s to a 3-1 win at Oldswinford.

Charlie Bagley made sure of the points when he netted after the break.

Halas Hawks Under-10s bowed out of the League Cup at the hands of Oldswinford Youth.

Harvey Brookes and Altrin Alshiqi found the net for Hawks as they went down 6-2.

Sedgley White Lions Under-9s hit the comeback trail to book their place in the next round of the League Cup.

The Lions were trailing 2-0 to Tipton at the break but rallied after the interval with goals from Tieron Guthrie, Travis Pitt and Harry Brookes took the score to 3-3 at full time.

There were no further goals in extra-time with tie going to penalties.

Keeper Jake McGarry emerged as the hero for Sedgley as he pulled off two saves as Lions won 3-1.

A strike from Connor Fisher earned Halas Hawks Under-14s a deserved point against Woodcross.

Oliver Miller and Jake Checkett grabbed consolation efforts as Halas Hawks Under-11s went down 7-2 to Kewford Eagles.

Hasbury hit the goal trail

HASBURY RANGERS GIRLS found their scoring boots as they ran riot against Phoenix Girls.

Hasbury proved far too strong for Phoenix as they bagged 10 unanswered goals.

Leah George led the way with a hat-trick with Becky Hurley, Meg Harrison and Ellis Halls scoring twice. Levi Cheadle added the other goal.

Ashley Aston and Steve Mason, with a 5-1 break, gave Norton a flying start and Adam Ness made sure.

Snooks SC A pocketed a hard-fought 3-2 win away to Pockets SC B. Adam Harvey and Craig Harris both won narrowly, whereas Stuart Hale stroked in a 6-0 break.

Neal's hopes go up in smoke at Silverstone

Smoke filters out from Matt Neal's car during a weekend to forget in the British Touring Car Championships

MATT NEAL'S British Touring Car Championship hopes literally went up in smoke at Silverstone this weekend.

The reigning champion from Shenstone near Kidderminster failed to score a single point due to a fire and a retirement.

Neal's team-mate Gordon Shedden leads the championship on 364 points with Jason Plato now in second place, 15 points behind.

Neal is the outsider in the race for glory with 333 going into the final race of the season at Brands Hatch. The in-form Plato claimed two victories at Silverstone and in race three came from 20th on the grid to take victory.

Almost as impressive was Henley In-Arden's Matt Jackson who brought his Ford NGTC Focus from 16th on the grid to take the chequered flag in race two.

Mark hits form for place on the tour

BRIERLEY HILL'S Mark Jones will be a part of the PDC's next European tour. The Black Country darter will go to Holland this month to compete in the Dutch Darts Masters after winning both games in Dublin at the weekend.

The 42-year-old edged past Michael Barnard 6-4 on Friday afternoon and went the full 11 legs with William O'Connor to win 6-5.

With qualification in the bag, Jones moved on to compete in the two Players Championship events, also at the City West Hotel.

He gradually got the better of Stuart Kellett, taking the victory by 6-3 to set up a second round meeting with resurgent 'Rocket' Ronnie Baxter, the current world No 14.

Jones stunned Baxter, who took just a leg as he fell to the Black Country darter 6-1, then facing 'The Pie Man' Andy Smith.

Smith is 19th in the Order of Merit but Jones took his chances for a 6-3 victory.

However, his Saturday was derailed, losing 6-1 to former world youth champion Aaron Monk.

In the final tournament he failed to get past the first round, winning just a leg in a 6-1 defeat to Nigel Heydon.

The former West Midlands county player has proved he can stun the best, a trait showed in beating James Wade last month.

With victories like that in the Players Championship, he has risen another place in the world rankings and now sits 73rd.

Yeltz make a double move

HALESOWEN have made a double swoop to land Rugby Town skipper Ross Miller and Eric Bowen.

John Hill has made his first signings as Yeltz boss as he looks to maintain to plug the gaps left by injuries.

Scott Lycett is struggling with a hamstringing injury while Nathaniel Caines has a possible broken wrist and Ben Steane is also facing a stint on the sidelines with a hamstringing problem.

Central defender Miller, who can also play in midfield, is a former Tipton, Chasetown and Sutton Coldfield ace while ex-Walsall trainee Bowen, who can play on the wing or at full-back, was a member of the Tipton squad who reached the FA Cup first round under Hill.

Glassboys' goal glut as they leapfrog to top

GARY HACKETT'S men went top of the Southern Premier table with an impressive home win over a highly regarded Chesham who reached the play-offs last season.

With Leamington not in action, the Glassboys knew a win would see them leapfrog the Brakes and they started strongly, largely controlling the first half-an-hour or so.

A second minute corner from Sean Geddes bounced to Jamie Oliver whose header goalwards was blocked. The ball rebounded to Nathan Bennett who screwed a shot wide of Shane Gore's right-hand post.

On 15 minutes Sam Rock had two efforts stopped before another blocked attempt from Leon Broadhurst spooned up across the goal for Luke Benbow to head home.

Stourbridge 5 Chesham 0

Chesham rallied for their best spell as Danny Talbot blazed a 25-yard strike over and, four minutes later, as play restarted after a stoppage, Talbot slid the ball through for Michael Chennells to shoot wide.

Stourbridge responded and on 42 minutes Talbot failed to cut out a Paul McCone pass which let Canavan in to drive past Mark Lambert from the edge of the box.

Luke Benbow saw Scott Thomas block the his shot but Benbow ran on to a 45th-minute pass through the centre by Ben Billingham. Having beaten the offside trap, he rounded Gore to score.

Two minutes after the re-start Nathan Bennett met a corner from Geddes to head home. Billingham almost added another in the 64th minute as he received a throw and struck an early 20-yard drive that drew a good low reaction save from Gore.

Chesham struggled but Lewis Solly was in action in the 70th minute as Simon Thomas got the better of Bennett out on the left before passing back to Dave Fotheringham.

Solly got safely behind his shot and three minutes later Billingham added a fourth for Stourbridge as McCone and Broadhurst combined well to set up Canavan who misused his shot across the face of the box.

Billingham arrived in the nick of time to slide the ball in at the far post.

Stourbridge sub Tom Turton played his part in the Glassboys' fifth and final goal in the 85th minute as he slipped the ball through to Broadhurst.

He checked onto his left foot before curling a shot into the far corner of the net.

Chesham might have grabbed a stoppage time consolation goal but Solly saved well from a low Chris Watters shot to keep his clean sheet intact.

Pearce is on the bill at Dudley

STOURBRIDGE'S Steven Pearce will provide chief support on the undercard of stable-mate Chris Male's English title fight in Dudley next month.

Doubts had arisen over whether the 27-year-old would be fit in time to compete at the Venue on November 9 after cracking a bone in his right hand.

The injury came in his last fight three weeks ago, his first time at the top of the bill although his Walsall Town Hall rumble with Billy Smith was far from easy.

'Fierce Pearce' was in absolute agony come the fourth of his six-round tussle and it showed when he returned to the corner at the end of the session.

Trainer Shaun Cooper threatened to pull him out until Pearce talked him out of it but the pain shot down to the fighter's leg, making him hobble around the ring.

The light welterweight - a Midlands champion in the ABA Novices as an amateur for Cradley ABC - had already switched to southpaw when injury hit and managed to soldier on.

When the final bell sounded, Pearce recorded an arguably-generous 60-56 decision against the spirited Smith, but any win was a reward from a fight he could have been retired from.

Now unbeaten in five pro contests, Pearce is building up a reputation as a scrapper and will be in action over four rounds.

At the top of the bill, Cradley's Male challenges Leeds' Josh Warrington for the vacant English featherweight crown over 10 rounds of championship boxing.

Tickets are available now and, for more information, call the Venue on 01384 453 104 or 07964 722 736.

POWERFUL SAXONS RATTLE IN THE TRIES

Stourbridge 43 Luctonians 7
THE SAXONS came through their sternest test to date with flying colours as they powered to victory over Luctonians.

An impressive defensive performance saw Saxons concede just one try while they ran in six of their own. Richard Stott enjoyed an immense game, locking together a pack that gave their opponents no change whatsoever.

They shut out their opponents during Robbie Hurrell's sin-binning, bagging two tries in the period.

The starting XV was unchanged from the Bromsgrove game but Jordan Page and Ben Hughes were back on the bench.

Lucs failed with early chances but a good chase caught Lucs' fullback in possession just short of his tryline on 15 minutes and forced a penalty as he held on. Ryan got a favourable rebound off the left upright.

After the Lucs 15 was again caught and turned over near his own line, the Saxons moved the ball for an Ali Bressington unconverted try on 25 minutes.

Lucs spurned their fourth kickable penalty - but their lineup was disrupted and they then turned over possession from a knock-on.

Saxons' Hurrell got a 10 minute rest for a high tackle but Lucs were pushed backwards by a scrum of seven forwards plus the captain at makeshift blindside flank.

The Lucs openside ran into Will Hurrell without close support and found the ball ripped from his grasp near the Saxons 22-metre line. Hurrell ran 80 metres to score in the corner. Ryan landed a difficult conversion just before half-time for a scarcely credible 15-0.

With Hurrell still in the

sinbin for the start of half, Saxons missed a long range kick before Hurrell got a second run in, converted for 22-0.

Saxons were penalised for side entry and Alex Davidson went over near the posts on 53 minutes. The conversion made it 22-7.

Hughes and Sam Baker replaced Mukarati and Will Hurrell. Bressington intercepted to score after an 80 metre run in. The bonus point secured, Ryan converted on 60 minutes.

After Lucs knocked on Jamie Hearn ran the ball in under the posts three minutes later for 36-7. Pete White and Page came on for Lucas Roy-Smith and Pearl, with Nick Adams on for George.

Tu'ipolotu's punt was chased by Hearn who gathered to run in another long range effort for 43-7.

Saxons kept Lucs in their own half until the end. Coach Mike Umaga said: 'We knew Lucs would come and compete up front, the turnovers our defence forced were key to the win.'

'I was also pleased with the way our backs reacted to what was happening in front of them, that vision enabled us to score those tries.'

Hagley are on the up as they canter past Colts

WEST HAGLEY EAST UNDER-11s are all smiles as they chase success in the Central Warwickshire League. Hagley are handily-placed in fourth place in the Division Four standings in the nine-a-side league. The youngsters boosted their hopes of pushing for glory with an impressive 4-2 away-day success at Redditch United Colts at the weekend, taking their tally of goals to 20 in just five league outings.
